We were trying to rack our brains on how we could operate our business in a “Click & Deliver” scenario, the answer was staring us in the face, NOTHING changes! We have been letting our customers click on our website and we have been delivering cars nationwide since we opened in 2009. We got to grips with online sales years ago and we know how to handle it, we won't waste our time so we won't waste your valuable time either, we can talk figures over the phone, we can have WhatsApp pictures of your trade in's to value. Give our sales team a call and let's get started on doing what we do best, with the added support of mask's and hand sanitizers to keep us all safe.
